Bob Masse and Amplified Clothing

So, there's this clothing line called amplified clothing that basically embodies the vintage look. They have exclusive deals with the Rolling Stones with their tongue logo and other bands like Lynard Skynard, The Who, Pink Floyd, etc. People like David Beckham, Kate Moss, etc all are big fans. They also have the Bob Masse collection (he did the artwork for bands like The Doors, Pink Floyd, Santana, Tori Amos, Jefferson Airplane..the list goes on) They also have clothes for kids, which is pretty awesome. They're based in the UK, but they ship worldwide and have some great deal and such and besides that they aren't that unreasonably priced. You can check them out at
