
Handbag designer? I want to buy your bags..

Posted by Amazona - 2008/06/07 22:01

I'm launching niche accessories store in 5 weeks and, despite much searching (!!), I've not had massive success sourcing two or three handbag designers from the UK (USA - yes! Here ? No!).

If you have quality products in stock at the moment (or short lead times) then please get in touch - beccamf@googlemail.com.

Thanks!

Why don't you come along to our boutique in Croydon and see the fabulous handbag designers we have there. Give Hayleigh a call on 020 8681 5014 and pop in and see us. The ASOS accessory designer came in on Thursday and she found a few handbag designers that she liked!

Why don't you search through the FC Boutique vis www.fashioncapital.co.uk? This showcasing outlet is available to all members for FREE, this is a quick and easy to use way of setting up your own online Boutique saving all the time, hassle and financial struggle you would normally encounter by setting up your own. You may be able to find some designers you like via the FC Boutique, if not then you are welcome to come to either Boutique in Barking or Croydon and view handbag designers stocking with Fashion Enter.

Kind Regards

Emily
