Not been on this site for ages but saw Evening Standard and new it was you guys.

I lol out loud when I read what has been going on and I lost the plot when I checked out the Croydon Advertiser online site.

R peopel for real? Some bitter wannab model has obviously got a prob that she didn't win and racked up the dirt on the winner. Shame on them. No street cred

Checked out the models, (actually some of them made me seriously lol again) seen the video and she was top.
