Hello!

We are an international women's fashion label based in England with offices in Los Angeles and Paris (with pending agreements for Spanish distribution)

Due to rapid expansion, we are looking for a business partner (with capital investment to match our own) or commission based agent to take over the UK sales and marketing side of the business

The ideal candidate will meet the following requirements:

Have at least 10 years of experience in the UK Fashion Industry

A background in sales or marketing and business management

Computer literate (ideally own a laptop)

Open minded and not afraid to "Telecommute".

For more information about the company you can visit www.sismourbano.com :laugh:
