
Young designers needed

Posted by Ineta - 2007/08/30 22:03

Hi all,

I am in a process of opening an online store.

I am looking for designers to sell their items. I am looking for funky urban clothes and accessories. I would also be extremely interested in buying end of the lines/sale items for a reduced price.

Please get in touch on im@grybaz.com

Can you tell the users how this would work...commission rates? There are many online boutiques now...how is yours different. Are you committing to an advertising budget...?

Good luck
