
fashion enter catwalk show

Posted by mambo - 2007/09/08 11:13

i loved it, to jenny and co well done for all the hard work. it paid off.

to all that did not come it was brilliant, fantastic you missed out on some great new designs...i'm looking forward to having mine in store....watch out people im coming to join you soon.

the show was in barking, the models where great and the make up, well done to all.

next time we should all as students and designers support each other. there are alot of people out there offering help to us and fashion capital and the enter boutique is just one.

once again thank you,
much love to you all,
mamb x :)

=====

Re:fashion enter catwalk show

Posted by JenniferHolloway - 2007/09/09 11:36

Hi thanks for the comments...glad you made it there.

Did you realise that the British Satalitte TV Corporation was there filming too? I know Catarina Eden was interviewed were you? Also Southwark TV were there as well. We had our own film crew there to do an in houes DVD.

The models were from Divinity Models and they did every one proud. The attendance of MP Margaret Hodge also brought the papers there too and I know a couple more desginers were interviewed by the papers.

These opporuntities are like gold dust to create and it was brilliant to see such a good turnout.

We will do another fashion show before Christmas too.

Thanks again for your support.

Jenny

=====