
Up and Coming Designers Wanted!

Posted by allysonhiggins - 2007/10/02 16:33

I need cutting edge, up and coming fashion designers for an amazing opportunity. I am producing and scouting for a fashion show that will be held in a wonderful, intimate gallery space in London.

I want people who are looking to break through to the public, the industry and are ready to start their career. I can only showcase 6 to 10 designers so before you contact me you must be/have:

- a collection (one that flows together) of at least 6 pieces
- ready to sell and/or reproduce your collection for sale
- amazing Quality

There is no other requirements so just WOW me!

I will need to meet with you and see your collection before any further progress can be made. Please contact me via email so that we can arrange a time to meet. My email is, allysonhiggins@gmail.com
It would be very helpful if you could send through jpeg, adobe, digital or any other format of images so that I can view your collection prior to a meeting.

I look forward to hearing from you all and am excited to see lots of new talent!

Many thanks,
Allyson Higgins-Halfpenny

Hi, I am just setting up my own womenswear label, I have a collection that I did for my masters that is available, or my new womenswear collection will be ready in about a month. When is the catwalk to be shown?

Please feel free to email me, Helenkamaciej@hotmail.co.uk

Due to the overwhelming success with Profile this year we are planning a new event for 2008. All information will be posted on the site.

Thank you for your interest.
