Hi everyone !

I represent a Costume and Fashion Jewellery online store AVALAYA.com

We have a wide range of modern and exclusive jewellery designs sourced from all over the world. We are fairly new to the market and constantly expand our range.

If any of You are involved with styling and presentation of your clothes' collections we can lend You any piece (or selection thereof) that you may find on our website.

We also have an in-house photographer who may also be available to shoot your collection together with our jewellery.

The model(s) could be provided by us or they could be hired by yourselves.

Please contact us if You are interested.

You may use the contact us form on our website or this email address: info (at) avalaya (dot) com
(please replace (at) with @ and (dot) with . )

Look forward to hearing from You,

Ms Nina
