London Parties will be hosting a London Fashion Week after party at one of Londons most prestigious members club in London, the Kensington Roof Gardens.

Your involvement will grant you the opportunity to showcase your most current collections.

This event will be listed under the London Fashion Week event list.

Your involvement will consolidate the link between London Fashion Week and this London Fashion Week After Party. In return, we will display your logo on all of our marketing and promotional material which will go out to the 330, 000 members on our database.
