
freelance sample machinist / sewing technician

Posted by sw11skin - 2008/02/27 08:38

hi my name is grahame rees and i am a freelance sample machinist / sewing technician, i have been a machinist for 24 years and a freelance sample machinist for 12 of them,i have worked for loads of different companys and i help students with their collections every year for st martin's,royol college of fashion and epms college of fashion.i got 2 machinist at home 1 flatbad and other 4 thread overlocker so if you need any help with your collections then just call me on 07731095855
grahame_rees@fsmail.net

=====

Re:freelance sample machinist / sewing technician

Posted by emily - 2008/02/28 12:12

Hi Graeme,

You should definately write a profile about yourself around 150 - 200 words with an image of your work and yourself which you can then send to me at emily@fashioncapital.co.uk. We can then post your profile up on Fashion Capital, advertising your services free of charge. As Fashion Capital receives such a high volume of traffic, this will increase your exposure hopefullt increasing the amount of work you receive,

Kind Regards

Emily

=====