
Help finding an internship in Milan

Posted by PrettyinPink - 2008/06/25 14:25

I am an American Student seeking an Internship in fashion buying in Milan for this Spring. I am having a very hard time finding contacts and information because I don't know anyone over there. I do speak italian (although not as fluently as I'd like.) Does anyone know where the best place is to look for internships there while still being in the US?
