
Fashion Stylist Course - July 2008 - FULLY BOOKED!

Posted by Chantelle - 2008/07/02 10:15

I would like to give you an update regarding The Fashion Academy's 'Intensive Fashion Stylist Course' on 12th/13th July at The Capital Hotel, Knightsbridge, London. The Fashion Stylist Course on this date is now FULLY BOOKED but there are still a few places left on 9th/10th August.

The 2-day Intensive Fashion Styling Course is designed to provide students with information on styling for personal makeovers, catwalk, photo shoots, magazine and publication editorials.

The course will be practical based, hands on and fast paced with talks from two of Europe's leading stylists Shirley Lane and Chantelle Znideric who are already established on the fashion scene.

Throughout the duration of this course you'll learn the fundamentals of fashion styling and more! This workshop is very in-depth and is a fun environment to learn in, make friends and build networks.

You will gain fundamental knowledge by covering all aspects of what makes a good stylist, how to build an eye-catching portfolio, the differences between a personal stylist, styling for film, print and TV. In fact, it is unlikely you will learn all this information in any one place in the UK!

This course provides invaluable consolidated information based on Shirley and Chantelle's years of experience as stylists within the industry, and they will provide practical advice on how to get started in this exciting and also glamorous industry. A question and answer period will follow towards the end of each day so that you receive your personal and individual questions answered.

Please email chantelle@topstylista.com to find out further information and to reserve your space.

=====