Hi you need contacts and it just so happens that we are off to New York 10th and 11th September with our fashion event Profile. Not sure if this is possible for you but if you can manage to get the money together we can introduce you to our partners Nolcha who are based in New York and who knows what this may bring!! We are going out for a week and we have already networked extensiviely...worth a go?!

Send in an email to jenni@fashion-enter.com - Jenni Sutton will be in on Tuesday; 020 8462 9620 and she is also going to New York with Fashion Enter.

All the best.

Regards
