Hello I'm a Textile designer,currently on a work placement in London, helping design prints for a new women's wear brand,. but after being there for a year now the company is having financial trouble, due to this, sadly I won't be there for much longer. I'm looking for a company I can grow within. I design using photoshop and freehand. I'm very keen to learn and willing to give a challenge my best effort. I would be happy to view you, my portfolio at your convenience. Thank you.

Kind regards
Donna

Hi,
I am a textile design student and would love to work with a design start up.
I have 8 years experience as a graphic (interactive) designer, therefore my CAD skills are excellent. I also have experience with different printing methods. I am currently work as a freelance graphic designer whilst studying part time. As I have experience in studio environments I am used to working to budgets and deadlines and dealing with clients. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards

Hello, my name is Eleonora and I am a Manchester Metropolitan University textile design graduate (specializing on printed textiles).

I graduated with a First Class Honours degree and received the University Drawing and Dissertation awards.I took part at New Designers and was nominated for texprint exhibition in Paris.Also, I sold 10 designs to a greeting card company.

A committed and self motivated hard worker with passion for what I do, I would very much like to prove myself by working as part of your creative team!

I can send you samples of my work and a CV upon request.

Thank you.
