Designers needed!!!!

I am looking for budding designers to help me out with a magazine I am putting together as my final project at Uni. I need anyone from menswear/womenswear/lingerie/accessories and millinery designers to help me out and lend me their clothes for the fashion shoots. All credits will be printed and as many students will be reading my magazine when it is finished, there a huge potential of business.

Anyone interested, I would be grateful if you could email me on: princesskyrsty@hotmail.com

Many Thanks!
Kyrsty ;)
