
Work Experience on Fashion Shows?

Posted by FranPT - 2005/11/16 11:57

Hello,

I work for a company called Production Team (www.productionteam.co.uk). We produce Fashion Shows throughout the world and our clients include Adidas, Miss Selfridge, M&S, ClotheshowLive to name a few.

In turn, next year from the 21st to the 26th February we are producing the Fashion Show at The National Wedding Show (www.nationalweddingshow.co.uk) in London.

We are looking for individuals (aged 17+) who will be interested in taking part in work experience at the shows, assisting with dressing and general backstage duties. This is a marvellous opportunity for those looking to gain an insight into how shows are produced, and understand the various elements that go into a production.

Job Description

- Dress backstage models at the Fashion Shows daily
- Assist Fashion Stylist
- Liase with Production Team
- Liase with exhibitors, collecting and returning goods onsite
- Sewing skills would be an advantage

Ultimatly we are looking for eager, mature and reliable, comitted individuals who wish to be involved for all of the dates as above.

We will be able to cover the cost of travel expenses provided reciepts are provided up to Ã,Â£20 per person per day.

Please send your cover letter and CV marked 'Wedding Show Work Experience' via email to fran@productionteam.co.uk or to Fran Lee, Production Team, 15C Warwick Avenue, London, W9 2PS.

Please get in touch if you're interested.. looking forward to hearing from you!

Best,

Fran Lee :)

hiya

I am a third year fashion promotions student at London college of fashion and am interested in knowing more about the show you are organising.

I have experience with being a part of fashion shows as I helped out on London fashion forum's Profile 4&5 where I helped out dressing models backstage and helped organise it.

I have also done work experience at Brides magazine, at Vogue House.

If you could email me on : princesskyrsty@hotmail.com and tell me more as I am hoping to gain as much experience aas possible.

Thanks

Kyrsty
