A fantastic opportunity for this already well established designer brand. They are opening their first retail outlet located in Belgravia in January and are looking for an experience manager to run the store. You must have experience in bridal/designer or the luxury/couture brand market ONLY. As well as good pc skills predominantly in excel. Team of 4 with projected turnover or half a million. Interviews on Dec 6th so quick turnaround assured for good applicants.

Salary: £18-25,000 package
