
Photographer needs collaborations

Posted by cao17 - 2005/11/10 16:13

Hello!

I am a photography student from London College of Communication, looking for stylists, make-up/hair artists and models for building my portfolio.

I can't pay for photo-shoots but will give you prints for your portfolio!

I've got access to college studios in Elephant & Castle and own digital SLR camera.

And personally, I prefer edgy, quirky and interesting style rather than commercial high street style. But also like simple style.

If you are interested in please get in touch!

Thank you.

Kaoru
