Hi

I need cutting edge, witty, extremely talented male journalists (at least 5 peeps) to help me out on a magazine I am creating. You will get your work printed in a fantastic glossy magazine (student based) which will look great in your portfolio. I myself, am a journalist and really need a male perspective - so all you talented journo's please do get in touch! email me on : princesskyrsty@hotmail.com

Thanks!! :laugh:

Hi kyrsty,

can see you are looking for help regarding doing your glossy mag for your course! am an editorial photographer looking to update folio and would be willing to lend my services. I'm sure you may already have sorted this!

let me know

Holli

Hi Holli

Thanks for the post regarding helping out. I have got a photographer but was thinking of using 2 as it gives a more varied style. Drop me an email on: princesskyrsty@hotmail.com and tell me more about yourself and maybe send a few examples of your work?

Looking forward to your reply!

Kyrsty :) x
