Fashion PR and Marketing WORK EXPERIENCE

Right Image UK is an exciting and new company, set to make its mark on the fashion industry. We believe that the Right Image is EVERYTHING therefore we offer and represent products and services that mirror this.

Right Image UK is expanding and currently has a vacancy for a (WORK EXPERIENCE) Fashion PR and Marketing person on a part-time basis (1-3 days a week). We are looking for a passionate person to give this opportunity to. What we require from a candidate is hard work, dedication, ability to work on own initiative as well as ability to follow a brief.

If you are successful in this role, we hope to expand our team and have you on-board permanently after the work experience period.

Please email your CV with a short paragraph about yourself and how you could add value to the business to: info@rightimageuk.com

Hi, not sure what has happened here? I think that you have set yourself up with the same user name as myself. Unfortunatley we can not allow this as I am the administrator on the site. Do you want to contact me directly 020 3 132 2433. I can't allow this user name to be used for obvious reasons.

If you do not contact me within 24 hours I regret that I will have to deleted this name of the back end of the system.
