Hi, I've just discovered your web site - there's so much to read! I'm a design virgin, I feel I have some creative, exciting ideas and am in the early stages of researching, thus the reason why I'm here. Getting to the point, where can I look and learn about the industry, how it works etc., in order to progress my ideas? Thanks

Hi

I am a third year undergraduate in Fashion Journalism. However, over the duration of my degree I have become more interested in Fashion buying and am aiming to learn all I can about the occupation through my final major project.

Therefore, I am trying to contact any buyers in any field of fashion buying that would be willing to help me do this through interviews, emails, shadowing ect.

So if there are any buyers out there who are available to help, I would be eternally grateful.

P.S I am also interested in doing work experience in the field.

contact me at louisat.tucker2@virgin.net

Hi, we have a sister company www.fashion-enter.com and this company organises one to one mentoring sessions. It's £60 to join plus VAT and the meeting would be with me. You can get my profile from this site. You can't always just read up on everything and learn that way you need to hear how it is on the grass roots level.

Check out the site and if it's of interest then give us a call on 020 3 132 2433. The biggest advantage is that we have a boutique in Croydon and it's buzzing! You can speak to Vanessa directly too and have a chat through what we can offer. We realised that www.fashioncapital.co.uk is fantastic but very general. Sometimes you need specialist advice.

Regards

Jenny Holloway

There are two entries on the forum that can help you.

The site has been down for too long and now we are ready to roll. Sorry for the delay but now we have a team in place that should be able to respond to queries within 24 hours.

Many thanks

Jenny

Dear Jenny,

I have been trying to reach you at this number and somehow I can not get through, there's recording on this number:020 846 296 20. As you know I want to know the rates for consumers and for trade purposes.

Regards,
Monica

Hi jenny, im a previous fashion student from Croydon college and am looking for work-experience. I was wondering if you are looking for someone at the moment in the Croydon fashion Enter. I would be extremely grateful if you give an opportunity to gain some first-hand experience form your comapny.

Please let me know what I should do to take this further

Kind Regards
