
eager design graduate! snap me up!

Posted by emilyp - 2006/07/28 18:14

I am a fashion graduate looking for design work within London. I graduated from the University of Westminster in 2005, since then, I have worked with a range of designers, such as Wale Adeyemi, Ebru Ercon, and most recently, River Island. I have experience designing and making my own collections which has been shown at Graduate Fashion Week, and nominated for the Zandra Rhodes prize for Best Use of Colour. The collection is now being sold in London boutique, Spoilt Demeanour. I have previously designed trend directional collections, but I am looking to move into a street/urban direction. I have a high level of knowledge of Photoshop and Illustrator, and am motivated and diligent. If you are interested please call me on 07896221967 or e-mail me at emilyp_greaves@hotmail.com new project.....

=====

Posted by boyanared - 2006/08/14 19:24

I am currently looking for the young British designers for a new project I am working on...The theme of the project is Retro...think....glitter.....disco diva.....clubbing....soul...funk.....I would like to get in contact with a young enthusiastic people.....it is a very interesting project and by the sound of your post I am thinking that you would like to be a part of it....unfortunately I can not say too much about it...but if it sounds interesting you can contact me on my email...send some photos of your work....I would like to say more but it is a project that has to stay secret until the right moment comes....

thanks and hope to hear from you

boyana

bojanaboja@yahoo.co.uk

=====

We keep monitoring the site

Posted by JenniferHolloway - 2006/10/11 15:24

*

=====