
Want an Eco/Ethical Supplier?

Posted by Tiptoe - 2006/10/17 00:28

Tiptoe is a lifestyle brand that offers eco friendly fashion and design that is ethically sourced. We also design, develop and produce own label collections.

Our mission is to help ethical consumers reduce the size of their eco-footprint and shop ethically by offering "Fashion + Design that doesn't cost the earth".

Why don't you write a profile about you and we will put this on the profile section (see news). If you have a press release we can also post this on the press and PR section too. If you are interested please send info to vanessa@fashioncapital.co.uk

Best of luck

Jennifer Holloway
