Posted by simwill - 2006/05/12 19:31

Hello,
sent a few messages regarding getting my boutique up and running, was told a few months back that it would be put up but to no avail. Have uploaded all the info as per requested.

Please see what you can do? :unsure:

I know...I am really sorry here and our hands are somewhat tied. The FashionCapital site is funded by the London Development Agency and we have been given limited access to upload information to keep the site fresh.

There are reviews occurring and we are hoping for a decision to be confirmed shortly about the site.

hang in there and sorry for the delay.

I assure you I want the site to return to its normal glory as well as soon as possible.

Will keep you posted.

Jenny
